THREE ACTS · ONE IS ALREADY YOURS

Rutana, in three acts.

Gold that remembers. A jewel that hides. Colour that answers back.

Act I · Classic · for the Seville collection

Seville

Gold remembers Andalusia. Arches, low sun, diamonds as cold as fountain water.

THE CONCEPT. Seville is the Arab memory of Europe, written in arches. We light Rutana the way that courtyard is lit at five o'clock: one sun, stone that keeps its warmth, gold that answers it. Nothing modernised, only revealed.

Act II · Out of the box · for the Secret necklace

The Secret

Worn closed, opened once. One blade of light, a hand, and the jewel she keeps.

THE CONCEPT. A jewel that is not shown is a jewel that is wanted. The film opens on a closed hand and never hurries; the waiting is the campaign. The reveal lasts one second, long enough to stay.

Act III · Trendy · for Rutana's enamel colours

Who loves adding colour?

Your own question, made into a summer. Violet, gold, white light, nothing quiet.

THE CONCEPT. Rutana asked who loves adding colour. We answer with a summer: opera glasses against white sky, gold worn in full sun. She looks out; the viewer looks at her. Built for the first second of a Reel.
